

Researcher

Digitalization and Platform Economy

PPMI is a leading European research and policy analysis centre. We help public sector and civil society leaders from around the world, presenting evidence in a way that is simple, clear and ready to use.

COME PREPARED

A successful candidate will have:

- ▼ full English proficiency and excellent writing skills;
- ▼ knowledge and experience in applying social science research methods;
- ▼ experience with tools for qualitative and quantitative data analysis (e.g. Stata, SPSS, R, NVivo, MAXQDA, Tableau and others);
- ▼ a strong interest in platform economy and digitalization of economies, societies and governments;
- ▼ experience in policy analysis, statistical analysis or web scraping (Python) would be an advantage.

TAKE ON CHALLENGES

You should be ready to partake in a wide range of research and organisational activities:

- ▼ implementing research for policy: collecting evidence, analysing the data, and drawing conclusions;
- ▼ conducting qualitative and quantitative analysis, ensuring high-quality and timely delivery of research outputs;
- ▼ helping our clients to understand digital transformation and providing recommendations;
- ▼ presenting research findings to colleagues, clients and the public at large.

GROW WITH US

You should expect a fast-paced and dynamic environment, where the ability to work in teams and individually go hand-in-hand. In return we offer:

- ▼ a competitive salary (starting from 1000 euros net) and eligibility for performance-based bonuses semi-annually;
- ▼ an opportunity to work with and learn from renowned experts and established researchers;
- ▼ training and coaching on relevant research methods, analytical and managerial skills and competencies;
- ▼ flexi-time and remote work arrangements;
- ▼ international working environment and an ergonomic office space in the city centre.
